Services for Faculty

The mission of the Arkansas State University-Beebe Libraries is to provide a center of academic support for the ASU-Beebe campuses and the communities they serve. This is accomplished through the following:

- Acquiring print and electronic scholarly resources which support the curriculum.
- Providing access to scholarly resources housed within the library, in addition to using technology to provide access to electronic resources from off campus.
- Assisting and instructing library users in the research process.
- Providing space and computer access for study, research, and the exchange of information.

Online Databases

We provide access to a wide variety of online products including over 60,000 electronic books and 30,000 journal titles. In addition, links are provided from our library’s website, Facebook page, and WebCT module. On-Campus access is provided at ASU-Beebe, ASU-Searcy, ASU-Heber Springs, and the Little Rock Air Force Base Degree Center. Off-campus access is also available by using your ASU Beebe ID number and six-digit birthdate.

Circulating Materials

Faculty may check out materials using their ASU-Beebe ID Card. At Abington Library, an unlimited amount of books may be checked out at one time. In addition, 10 videos and 10 Audio Books may be checked out at one time as well.

Reference and Instruction Services

Reference assistance is available for all aspects of our collection. Services are provided in-person, via e-mail or by telephone. Questions range from library catalog demonstrations to database training to help with subject specific research.

Library instruction is available in a variety of formats from in-person tours and class instruction to online instruction sessions. For more information and to reserve the facilities, contact Ron Russ, Electronic and Public Services Librarian at rsruss@asub.edu.

Interlibrary Loan

In cases where we do not own or have access to the materials in need, we can request the item (on your behalf) from other libraries. Interlibrary loan request forms are available at the circulation desk or online.
